Motion Establishing Constitutional Jurisdiction by American Jurisprudence

NOW COMES, Frederick Lee Bailey Counsel for Plaintiff by Guarantying Constitutional Rights and Civil Rights pursuant; but not limited to; Title 18 U.S.C.A. § 3231 as captioned, now presented by the following Constitutionality; issued by this order caused by Respondents acts under Title 42 U.S.C. Section[s] 1983 venue. This motion expressed thereunto establishes constitutional jurisdiction by American jurisprudence also defined at Title 28 U.S.C. § 451. Subsequently, Title 28 U.S.C § 1869(f) defines courts of the United States by convening Grand-Juries; then effectively bridges civil and criminal complaints together so far as lawful courts of the United States are concerned.

Accordingly 28 CFR, § 0.96 b the director of the Bureau of Prisons (BOP) is authorized to transfer offenders to and from the United States of America at Public Law 95-144. "Whoever is transferred from the United States of America to UNITED STATES custody must sign consent prior to transfer". On all recent 20th century government papers UNITED STATES is always captioned in all Capital Letters. Albeit,

"Any private or public opposition to this secured motion set fourth in present time must be served upon all parties within thirty (30) days from the date notarized on this instrument; by all United States of America Respondent[s] and all UNITED STATES AGENT[S] and EMPLOYEE[S] from the Court." We just placed the opposition under Constitutional Jurisdiction!

Finally under Title 28 U.S.C.A § 535: "The Attorney General and the FBI may investigate: "Any violation of Title 18 involving Government officers and employees." See also: Title 28 U.S.C § 1331 and 1332 (a) (2) by §1746 (1) and also Title 28 U.S.C. Chapter 89 §1447 (a) §1448 by § 1746(1).
